DEDICATED TO HARRY BERKOWITZ

-- he never tried to be something he was not

-- he devoted himself totally to helping others become what they chose

-- he defined 'integrity' for those around him

-- he will be sorely missed - his legacy is vast and is writ on those whose lives were touched by him.

Dear Judy,
I want you to know it's a pleasure to hear from you. Sounds like you're having a wild time. I'm glad you're having a swell summer. I hope you have a swell rest of the summer & a swell time when school starts.
Love,
Tom

Dear Judy
Well, better late than never I suppose - sorry I didn't write in your book sooner but I was away at school. Anyway, I want to tell you that you are a honest, good person who has got more for her than plain good looks going (which you have.) Please remember that if you ever feel the times are pushing in on you, you can always come up & talk to me. (maybe someday I'll tell you about my traumatic high school experiences!)
Anyway, keep smiling, and believe in yourself and goodness
Love,
Karen
(your neighbor)

In the 1971-72 yearbook, The Shield looks back in history to the "Gay Nineties." The term is misleading, however, for the years 1890 - 1900 were more turbulent than gay, contemporary television notwithstanding. The growth of cities in the United States and the accumulation of new wealth was accompanied by lavishness and social activities on a scale that contrasted sharply with the austere life of pioneer days. The Staff is to be congratulated for trying to depict this difficult period.

(764-6674)

I know you've passed away, and I'm sorry to say I'm going to miss you.
Like a puppet child I've grown, becoming alive, feeling alone.
Between four walls of stone I've come to find my home.
Like a friend
I'm going to miss you.

I'll get friends like that again but until then I'm going to miss you.
You've got my memories; a cold but gentle breeze.
Prayers in the spring
forgotten hopes and dreams.
Like a friend
I'm going to miss you.

Don't fly too high now Judy. I have a great time, but don't break too many arms

As Time Moves

The sun melts slowly into the night sky
Its rays fade softly into colors of gold.

You feel a sadness as the day is ending
As darkness touches the earth with cold.

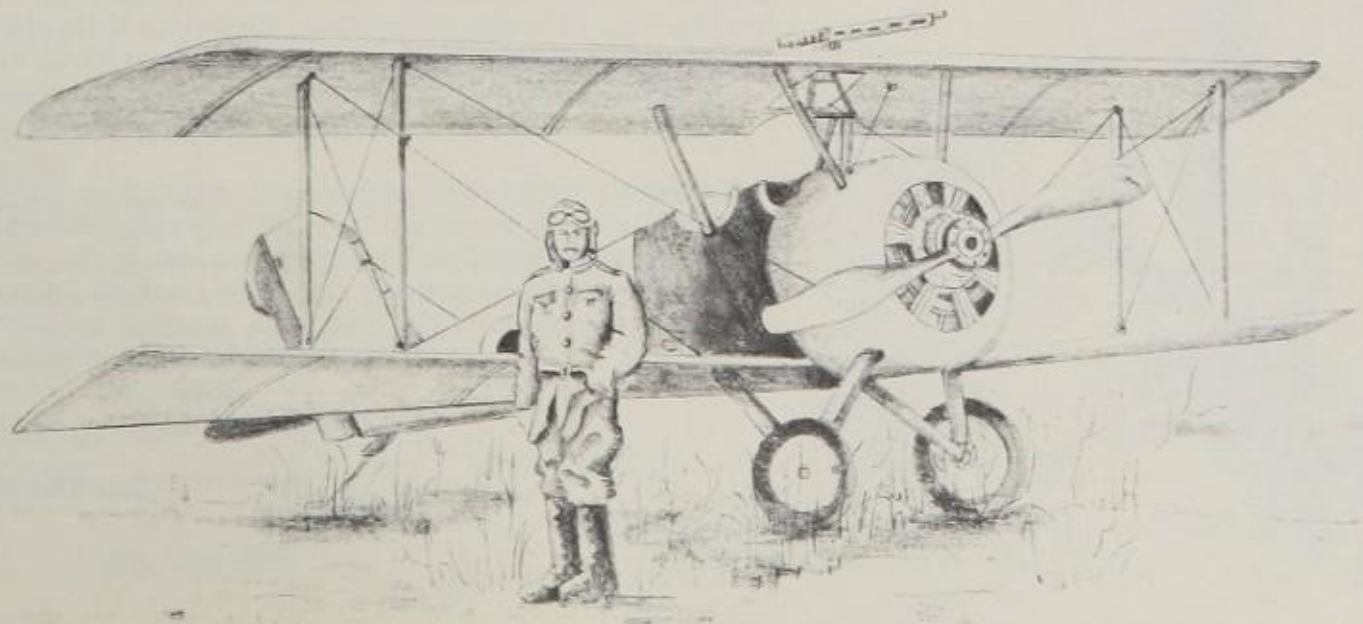
But soon a new star shines brightly above you
With silver starlight reaching far and wide.

Soon the sky's filled with hundreds of others
And the feeling of sadness you know had lied.

As Time moves slowly the moon arises
With a pure white glare shooting through the sky.

Then the night turns twilight and the sun starts shining
You stand and wonder, never knowing why.

Lorelle Kozoll



"The Chicken"

A Parody on Edgar Allan Poe's "The Raven"

Upon a midday quite forlorn, while musing of the passing morn,
While staring blankly at the trod-on, dusty floor,
When forty wink I started catching, suddenly there came a scratching
As if a frightened kitten begged for entrance through the door.
"Tis but a mangy cat requesting entrance through the door--
Only this and nothing more."

And this day, I do recall, had marked the start of that year's fall
And leaves were falling to the ground in many times a score.
Yet patiently as I sat listening, the scratching noise, it kept persisting
In melancholy patterns that to me seemed quite a bore.
Those nomotonal scratchings were to me but quite a bore.
That they were and nothing more.

Then through my thoughts (quite incoherent), it to me became apparent
The presence of a gaping hole then forming on my door.
With myself I was agreeing that the damage I was seeing Distinctly didn't match my room's quite elegant decor.
"I musn't let that gaping hole destroy the room's decor.
Stop that scratching, I implore!"

Presently I stood erect as some foul play I did detect
And stalked the hole although such plans I hadn't schemed before.
When once there I was awe-stricken as before me stood a chicken
Defiantly demolishing what once had been a door;
Twas but a single chicken making "mince meat" of my door--
Just a chicken, nothing more.

Unfortunately for the bird although I uttered not a word,
He for no reason had destroyed a quite expensive door.
With each degree the whole grew large, was but a chicken I could charge
With ruining an object that each day I had liked more;
An object that instead of chickens I had liked much more.
It would be there nevermore.

From such a loss I deeply saddened, at the bird I quickly maddened
Until I reached a madness that I'd never felt before.
I had been quite right to say the door's undoing was FOWL play
And with the nasty feathered beast I'd soon settle the score.
I'd show no mercy as with him I'd soon settle the score--
Settle it, and nothing more.

But be it that I wasn't bold, I found it hard the bird to scold
Despite the fact that him I did most certainly deplore.
Seeing me, twas not long after, he began a mocking laughter
That prompted my disgust towards him two times than was before.
That stupid bird had angered me two times than was before--
Two times worse, and perhaps more.

But soon my anger once restrained, erupted as my hate sustained
Through bursts of wrath which from my veins did pour.
I seized his neck and as I boasted, he was in the oven roasted
And of the bird was nothing left than feathers on the floor.
The only remnants of the bird were feathers on the floor--
Only feathers, nothing more.

I'd see the chicken.....Nevermore!

Jon Thomas

Don't Ever Poke A Snake
That's Sleeping In The Sun,
And Say The Poke Was Just A Joke
And Really All In Fun.
Cause If The Snake Is Dreaming
And Wakes Up With A Peck
It May Be You Who's Screaming
With Fang Marks On Your Neck!

"people-watching at the mall"

so many babies
all bundled snugly in quilting their faces
    like dewdrops half-hidden by awakening rosepetals peek out from warm swaddling
the parents
with a sensuality at once intimate and manifest hold the infants shyly
their faces are luminescent with a quiet pride that reaches out to gently touch those who venture near old people

    their age-stained skin finely etched and furrowed sit placidly about the fountains the women in soft wool dresses that hang near their ankles
    and the men in loose trousers and wrinkled white shirts their thirsty eyes follow the bustling passers-by perhaps they hope someone will spare a word or even a smile

young girls promenade wrapped in heavy fluffy coats and hats that rest on their tresses like snow frosting on satin
    they hug their packages and peep over the tops of them at the men strolling past the pretty girls smile with promiscuous eyes the men
    strong young virile caress them with a look and everywhere there are children children as artless as spaniels they prance through the mall stand waxy-nosed against display windows and fingerfish for pennies in the fountains their smiles are for free

Unexpected joy,
Surprise!
A gift, a present.
Life, like a child playing,
Takes an upward swing.
I sit back and enjoy it,
Wondering.
What will happen next?
If it be good, I ask,
Why is this happening to me?
If it be bad,
I'll take it in my stride,
For I am young, and just experiencing,
Lifestyles are still forming.
Tomorrow is another day,
Promising more life.

My darling special friend - Judy:

Henri Mancinni said it so beautifully "Where do I begin . . .?"

Judy - you, out of all others have always been there to stand by me - to help me, and to wipe away my tears with your wonderful smile.

God Judy - where do you get your inner strength?

There is much I could write to you - but I think you know how much you mean to me.

Have a beautiful summer and beautiful life

1971 Varsity Football Captain
DON BECK

At the end of an era Don Beck is considered one of the greatest running backs ever to play for the Lancers. Slashing his way into Grant history, the captain inspired his team on the field with electrifying sprints and off the field with unending devotion. With speed and power the dynamic tailback again captured all EVL and All Valley honors. To earn these honors he merely rewrote Lancer record books eclipsing both rushing and scoring standards. In only one game, he rushed 192 yards and in one season an astounding 651 yards, thus surpassing all past performances. The high point of his career included the honors of Most Valuable Player and Best Offensive Back.

1971 Varsity Football Captain
CHUCK ORRISON

With undaunted dedication and leadership, right guard and middle linebacker Chuck Orrison will go down in history as one of the finest athletes ever to wear the Lancer Orange and Brown. With athletic prowess and a great attitude, he garnered All City, All Valley, and All EVL honors. Highlighting a great career, he shattered all previous existing tackling records for one season with 72 tackles and 31 assists while topping the former career standard with a whopping 103 tackles and 43 assists. Other honors bestowed on him include Best Offensive Lineman, Best Defensive Back and Most Dedicated Player.

1971-2 VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

Capturing 3rd place in the East Valley League behind Fairfax and North Hollywood, the inconsistency of the Lancers was their undoing. Although they defeated North Hollywood twice, the Lancers lost to league doormat Hollywood, and were almost defeated by first year Kennedy. Led by Steve Wolfson, Bruce Cazden and Howie Levine, the Lancer Hoopsters sometimes displayed a potent ability to win, but they didn't put it together often enough.

1971-2 JV BASKETBALL TEAM

Winning only four games, the Grant JV's tried hard, but were unable to capture any honors this season. Even though EVL titles were out of reach, the last game they managed to defeat Hollywood by 9 points. Although Marc Levy and Mike Hungness were outstanding all year for the JV's, lack of penetration on offense and a porous defense were their downfall.

1971-2 BEE BASKETBALL TEAM

STANDING: Robyn Shaffer, Janeen Bellino--Scorers, Rick Wagner, Chris Dixon, Greg Adler, Greg Hudson, Paul Kosty, Gary Polan, Marc Gold, Coach Malkin. KNEELING: Marc Shifter, Perry Stone, Fred Levine, Jeff "Tech" Friedman--Capt. Jerry Miller, Bruce Miles, Howard Entin.

The Bee Team captured 2nd place in League this year, almost winning the League championship. They finished with an excellent 12-2 record, losing once to Fairfax and once to North Hollywood. With balanced scoring and no real star, the Lancers proved to be a formidable opponent to most teams. The starters on the team were Greg Hudson, Rick Wagner, Greg Adler, Howard Entin and Perry Stone.

1971-2 CEE BASKETBALL TEAM

STANDING: Robyn Shaffer, Janeen Bellino --Scorers, Steve Gould, Stuart Koenig, Ken Stovitz, Joe Greenstein, Randy Tilner, Ken Simon, Coach Malkin. KNEELING: Tommy Wade, Mike Skall, Russ Diamond, Rob Croick, Marc Heffler, Bruce Totten. SITTING: Jeff Golden, Jerry Quesada--captain, Richard Simon.

Fantastic is the only word for the Cee Team this year. Winning 13 games and losing one, they lost that one game in a meaningless affair with North Hollywood after they had already clinched the League title. The team set records galore this year, team and individual. Randy Tilner and Jerry Quesada were undoubtedly the class of the team and the League. Tilner averaged 15.2 points a game among his other achievements, and was named EVL player of the year. Quesada

Greg Hudson struggles to get shot in over defensemen.

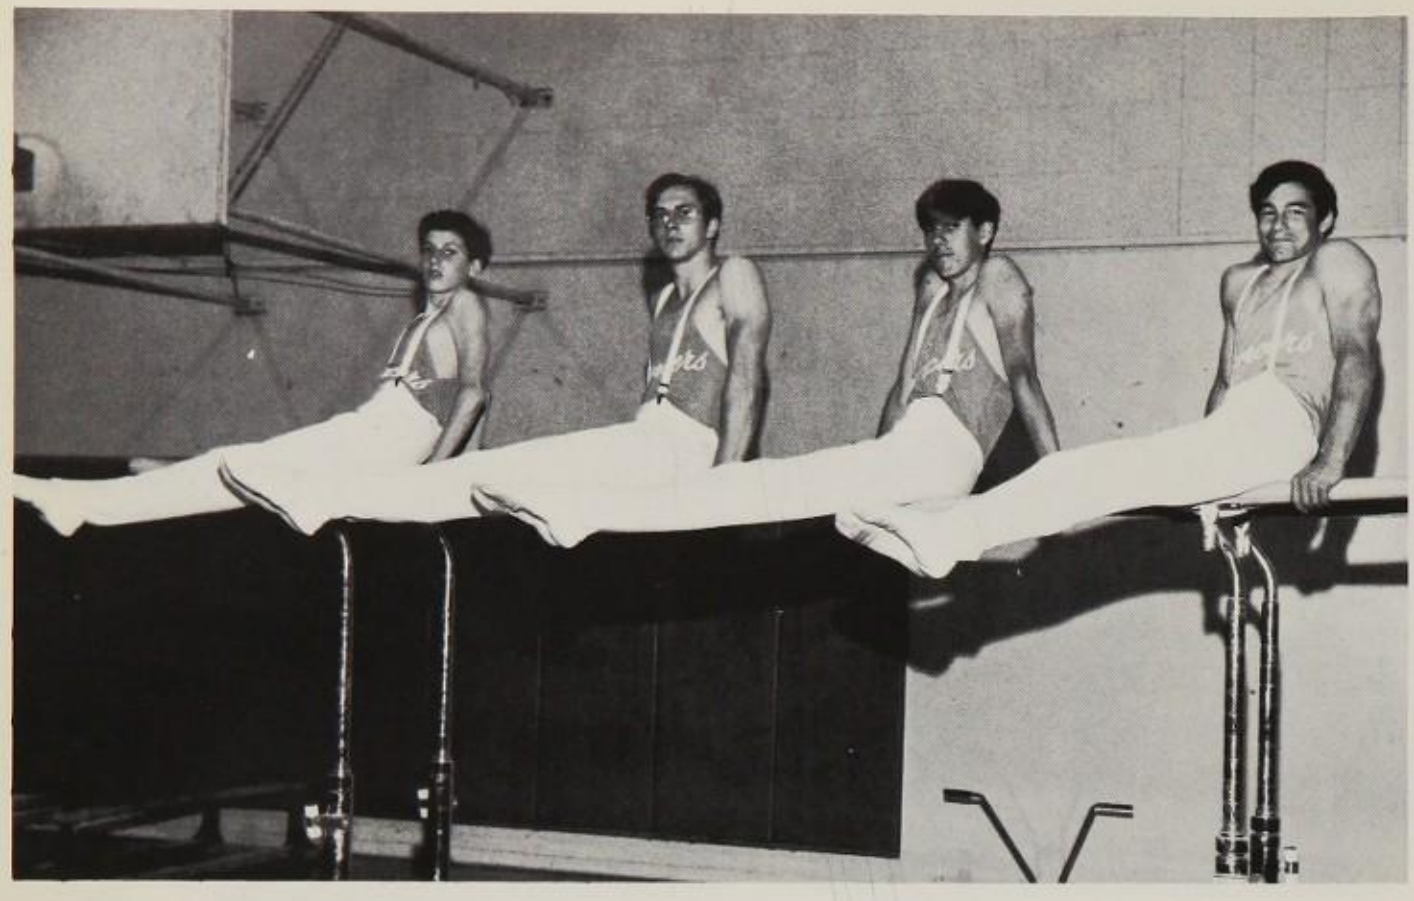
Randy Tilner sweeps off rebound to start Lancer fast-break.



The Grant Gymnastics Team was a very courageous team this year. Although only a handful of people competed, this team was in the middle of a heated race with Fairfax and Sylmar for the league title all season. Inspired by seniors Jim Vowels, Paul Roa and Norbert Glance, the team overcame their lack of membership by exhibiting exceptional performances in all events.

1972 GYMNASTICS TEAM

1972 VARSITY TENNIS TEAM

As usual, the tennis team was outstanding this year. Led by tenth grade sensation Bruce Menson and an array of phenomenal seniors the team was a pre-season pick to win the city championship. Although the loss of steady twelfth grader Robert Goldman for the year (and other assorted injuries to other players) hindered thd team, they easily captured the League title.

1972 JV TENNIS TEAM

The JV Tennis Team left much to themselves most of the year, did very well this '72 season. Following in the winning tradition of previous teams, they garnered League honors. One of the top players was tenth grade Dave Mydeck, a very promising individual for next year's Varsity season. Others who contributed to the success of the team are Rob Rothman, Bob Totten, Dave Malmuth and Bruce Totten.

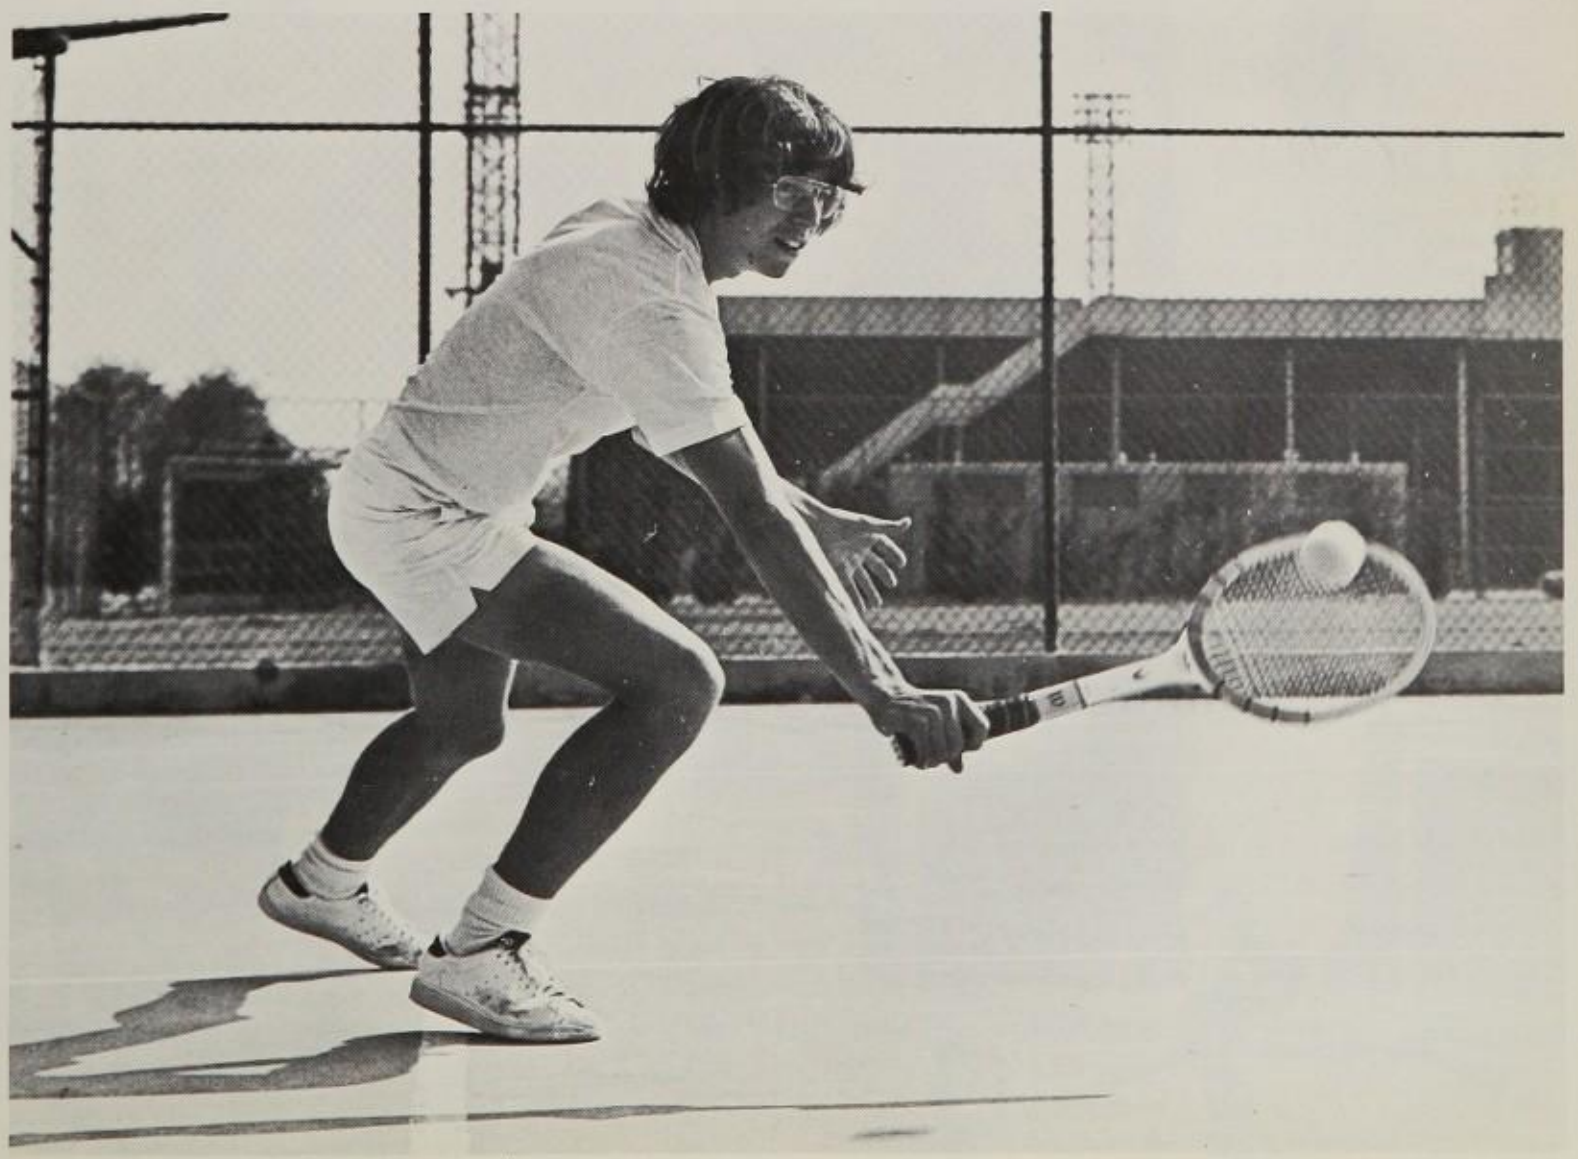
BOTTOM: Bob Besser displays his tricky backhand



1972 VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

Before the start of the season, if someone had asked Coach Gordon about the baseball team, his reply would have been — "strong hitting, good pitching, no defense." When the season started, surprising enough, the big problem was the clutch hitting expected before the season was non-existent. The team lost many games in the last inning. About a third of the way into the season the hitting mysteriously appeared and the team became a cohesive unit. Led by Captain Jim Aldrich, Ross Parker, Steve Ligerman, and others, the team vied for League and City honors.

1972 JV BASEBALL TEAM

STANDING: Glen Farkas, Paul Miller, Steve Aungst, Jeff Shapiro, Norm Parille, Gary Polan, Tim Harrison, Rick Heiser. KNEELING: Sean Hunter, Ken Stovitz, Joe Greenstein, Mark Weinstein, Tom Wade, Coach Malkin (not shown --Chris Angelich).

Plagued by injuries and ineligibility, the JV Baseball Team didn't quite come together as a close-knit team this season. Comprised mostly of tenth graders and returning lettermen Tim Harrison and Chris Angelich, the JV's still were in the thick of the race for the League championship all year. Rick Heiser spearheaded the pitching of the team, while Tim Harrison and Steve Aungst exhibited individual talent at bat and on the field.

Caught in an off year, the Varsity swim Team performed admirably all season long. After an early season loss to Sylmar, the first league defeat for the team in five years, the Varsity seemed to come together. With Captain Phil Harter, Robby Ross, Lee Rosichan, Dan Pilgreen and fantastic sophomores Eric Laursen and Eric Neiman leading the way, the team defended their EVL title by staying in contention for League championship the entire year.

The Bee Swim Team performed much as expected this year winning their meets by lopsided margins. Like the Varsity, there was no real superstar, just a group of guys doing a good job in a true team effort. Leading the way most of the year were seniors Scott Simons and Loren Block, juniors Mark Steele and Chuck Izenstark and sophomore Ernie Perkins. Winning the League Championship was just another step toward city honors.

1972 CEE SWIM TEAM

Although the Cee Swim Team had a different formula than the Varsity and the Bees for success, the end result was the same easy victories. Spurning the balance aspect, the Cees won all year behind two stars. These two--junior Chip Fedalin and sophomore Corky Hutchkins, with help of senior Jack-of-all-trades Bob Hacker--made the Cees formidable opponents for the rest of the EVL, and for the rest of the city as well.

STANDING: Coach Johnson, Captain Leonard Grossberg, Mike Cohen, Bob Reed, Don Engstrom, Doug Kempe, James Davis, Geoff Bremmer, Robert Spencer, John Norris, Jim Markloff. MIDDLE: Bruce Eisner, George Smallberg, Ron Adams, Aldo Primo, Kerry Adkins, Gregg Rudloff, Captain Dave Kalb, Jim Emery, Wolfgang Richter. SITTING: Bob Thomas, Dennis De Gennaro, Don Beck, Terry Wright, Mike Kadlec, Barry Traug, Andy Valas.

Highlighted by such outstanding individuals as John Nomis, (shot put), Dave Kalb (440), and Russ Gilman (pole vault), this year's Varsity Track Team showed a marked improvement over the team of 1971. Lack of depth in many events proved to be the downfall for Grant's spikers. Other trackmen displaying excellent performances during the season were: Greg Rudloff (mile), Mike Cohen (440, shot put) Jim Emery (2 mile), and Chuck Berez (long jump).

STANDING: Coach Pinkston, Charles Levy, Steve Pepper, Bob Siegel, Mike Goldstein, Jack Placchi, Jocelyn Frenette, Mitch Kurtz. MIDDLE: John Falk, Bill Richardson, Robert Kutner, Captain Steve Ellowitz, Mike Davis, Dale Gross, Mike Four, Rudy Grossberg, Mark Burns. SITTING: Steve Blye, Pat Donahue, Louis Kaminer, Captain Bob Sherman, Yuji Shinohara, Eric Schneider, Randall Neal Cohen.

Throughout the year, co-captains Bob Sherman and Steve Ellowitz guided Grant's Bee Team to a fine season record. Next year, these returning Bees as Varsity runners should provide the impetus for another fine squad. Along with Sherman and Ellowitz, the squad received strong support from Mike Davis, Kim Kapin, Pat Donahue and a host of others.

1972 CEE TRACK TEAM

STANDING: Mark Naughton, Jerry Donowitz, Gary Austin, Peter Raudaskoski. MIDDLE: Larry Morris, Jay Fisher, Randy Tilner, Marc Birnbaum, Mitchell Rachman, Jeff Golden. SITTING: Jefferson Crain, Dave Drabble, Mike Cummins, Gonzalo Edwards.

The Cee Track Team had a tremendous season. A number of tenth graders proved to be the stimulus for this admirable team effort. Among these sophomore sensations were scattered 11th and 12th graders. The team benefited by such brilliant individuals as Mark Naughton, Bruce Eisner (also Varsity part of the season), Mike Cummins, Marc Birnbaum, Jay Fisher, Pete

JOHNNY BROWN'S ALL STARS IN ACTION

THE JOHNNY BROWN ALL STARS AND GRANT HIGH MEMBERS MIX IT UP ON THE COURTS. LAUGHS AND A SHOW OF TRUE TALENT WERE THE HIGHLIGHTS OF THE EVENING.

I caught a strange disease today, called happiness.
Mirrors smiled at me, and I smiled back-
A crooked embarrassed smile, as if someone had discovered me talking to myself.
I wanted to run up to you
And hug you and kiss you
Rolling in the grass like puppies taste the wind and let it mess our hair
Run through the sunlight
And walk hand in hand
But then: I started thinking...
You would probably imagine me strange or perhaps even silly...
You know, there's also sadness
in the happiness disease.

CAMPFIRE

A joyful song, carried by the rising flames,
Lands softly on many peaceful hearts.
The crackling logs burn slowly,
Filling the air with their pleasant, woody aroma.
A special glow within warms your soul.
You see memories of the day playing among the dancing flames.
A smile creeps its way into your mind
As your tongue reaches out and catches a salty tear.
A sigh of content.
You are happy.

AUGUST 2015

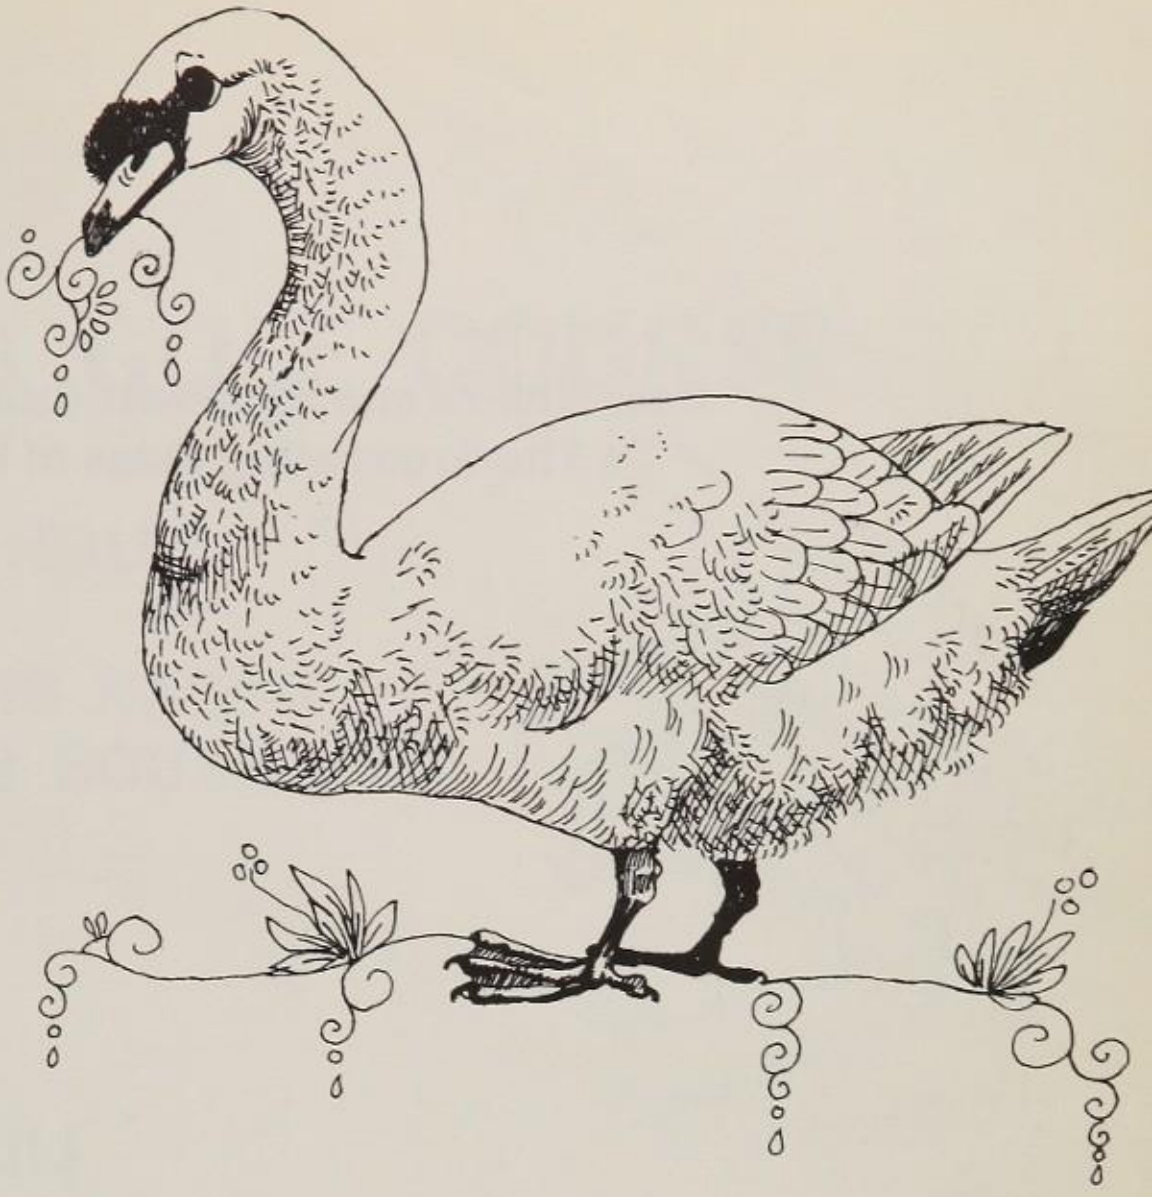
If only I had known. If only someone or something would have told me. I and the rest of my family might still be alive to this day. Only twenty years ago, I believe the date was sometime in August, 2015, it happened. So quickly though.

I was tall with long arms and long legs. I had big green eyes, and at about November or September I got a real good tan. Some years I got a little sun burned, but eventually the tan or burn fell away and didn't come back until the next year. Unlike other families, we all in my family looked very much alike. We lived in the country. That's where all of us of my kind lived. They said that there was no room left in the city for us.

Then all of a sudden it happened. People running from all different directions, just causing more trouble than they really needed. There was no escape from the great balls of fire. First they came from the north, then the east. Soon they rolled in from the west, and then the south. We were surrounded! There was nothing we could do!! We had expected it sooner or later. Everyone talked about our small countryside being the last existing place on earth.

Well....it was all over now. Everything was completely burned. All that was left were ashes.

You probably think it strange that I am alive telling you this story today, but I am really quite dead. All that is left of me are the remains of my stump. For some day, I may grow into a brand new tree once again, but that day is far away.



The Swan

The grace of a swan,
    Floating on top of the world.
Knowing that she still maintains
    The royalty of nature.
As she croons her neck
    And drinks the cool water,
The swan feels, and knows,
    That while mankind has its troubles
    That she can safely say
        That she is happy.
